VIOLENT STORMS DO MUCH DAMAGE

Five Killed, Scores Injured and Millions in Property Loss Reported in Several States

NEBRASKA AND IOWA HIT

Rain, Wind, Hail and Floods, Combined with Tornado in Some Places

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 8—Five are dead, at least a score injured and property damage estimated to exceed three million dollars, in two violent storms which swept Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin and parts of Minnesota Thursday night and early today.

Two persons were killed at Black River Falls, Wisconsin, Thursday night and additional deaths were reported from Osseo, Bloomer and New Auburn, Wisconsin. The storm struck
Black River Falls at 6 p. m.

Nebraska Is Flooded

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 8—Rain, wind, hail and floods damaged Nebraska and western Iowa to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars
last night and early today.

Thirty telephone toll lines out of Omaha were down and telegraph
service was meager.

The worst damage was done in the vicinity of Columbus where the Loup river left its banks, carrying much livestock and inundating fields
in a strip several miles wide and 35 miles long. All bridges over the Loup, Beaver and Cedar rivers were damaged or washed away.

Six inches of rain fell at St. Edwards, flooding the town to a depth of three feet. A chautauqua was in session in a tent at St. Edwards, when the storm broke. The tent was whipped to shreds and 300 persons were forced to safety.

A long distance telephone message
just received from Des Moines, Iowa said:

"One of the worst storms in the history of Des Moines struck this city at 5:15 a. m. today.

"Wire communication with the outside world was severed, trees and telephone poles snapped at their base and a large number of roofs blown off of houses and buildings.

"So far no casualties have been reported.

"All tents at Camp Dodge, where several thousand citizen-soldiers are encamped, were blown away and the soldiers left without shelter while a heavy rain and hail fell.

Iowa Has Big Loss

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 8—Storms swept northern Iowa last night and early today causing heavy damage
and raising havoc with communication.

TELLS OF INVENTIONS IN A PERIOD OF LIFE

Raymond Springer, Attorney of Cennersville, Delivers Excellent Talk To Kiwanians

MODERN DAY DEVELOPMENTS

Reviewing the marvelous developments of the country in the way of inventions and progress, Raymond Springer, an attorney of Cornersville addressed the Kiwanis club Thursday
noon in a rapid-fire talk, showing the wonderful achievements within the scope of the life of a man, who is now 80 years of age.

The speaker pointed out that all of the great inventions and strides in the present day achievements had come within the 80 year period, and he touched upon each step in a most credible manner.

Mr. Springer went back to the earlier inventions including the steamboat, locomotives and similar things,
and led up to the present day inventions of electricity, airplanes, submarines and telephones, including the wireless and radio inventions of recent years.

Besides Mr. Springer other club guests included Judge Will M. Sparks of this city, and Winfield Stephens also of this city, who recently purchased the Quality Bake Shop.

ITALIAN CONSUL IS HELD

Indianapolis Officers Hold Him Despite His Protests

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8—Despite his vigorous protests of diplomatic immunity from arrest, Dr. V.
A. Lapenta, Italian consul in Indianapolis, was taken into custody
today, for permitting a minor to drive an automobile within the city limits. A machine driven by the consul's fourteen year old son crashed into another car in front of police headquarters.

Dr. Lapenta declared he would appeal to his government if necessary to prevent any record of his arrest being made.

DEFENSE TO REST CASE TO MORROW

Unless New Development Comes Up, Clarence Darrow, Attorney Is Prepared To Close

IN LOEB-LEOPOLD TRIAL

Plans to Deal Only Few Minutes
With Each Witness That Remains to be Examined

By EDWARD C. DERR
Criminal Court Room, Chicago,
Aug. 8—The defense in the absorbing Leopold-Leob murder hearing expects to rest its case tomorrow, unless some unlooked for development occurs, Clarence Darrow, chief defense attorney, said today.

While more than a dozen lay witnesses including some members of the immediate families of Nathan Leonard and Richard Leob are on the defense list, Darrow said he hoped to dispense with most of them. He plans to spend but a few moments on each of the witnesses he puts on the stand. These witnesses are to out the finishing touches to them.

The "mitigation of punishment"
structure Darrow has built with his alienists.

Present plans of the defense call for the calling of Dr. James W. Hall, chief of defense alienists to correlate
the stories of the alienists and lay witnesses.

Yesterday Miss Lorraine Nathan,
strikingly handsome 18-year-old daughter of the millionaire head of the Quaker Lace Company, took the stand and did her bit toward helping
"Dickie," her one-time sweetheart.

Today, Germaine Reinhardt,
equally pretty and youthful, but in more humble circumstances, is due to come to "Dickie's" defense. She, too, is a former sweetheart. Germaine is an artist's model and stenographer. Lorraine met Leob in 1921, while Germaine met the youth about two years later at a Bohemian gathering.

Both agree that "Dickie" had a lovable personality and agree he is not wholly responsible for his part in the murder of Robert Franks, 14-year-old school boy.

In "mitigation of punishment," Lorraine testified Leob acted in a most peculiar manner; that he was almost childish at times. She summed him up as "irrational." She did not change her testimony a bit
when State's Attorney Crewe intimated he might make a charge of perjury against her because of the totally different story she told in a statement made shortly after the arrest of the youths. She maintained her composure when Crewe asked her point blank whether she "lied when you made the statement to us or whether you are lying now?"

Germaine's testimony is expected to be along the lines of Lorraine's story. Germaine may amplify it a bit as it is understood that Leob paraded imaginary deeds of bravery
before her in an effort to impress her with his daring.

BIG OAT YIELD

Sexton and Brown have reported a splendid yield of oats on their farm
just west of the city on the Shelby-ville pike. They obtained 85 bushels per acre on a twenty-two acre field,
which is an unusually good yield.

MRS. MOORE RECOVERS

Mrs. T. B. Moore of Orange who underwent a major surgery at the Memorial Hospital in Cornersville
three weeks ago, is doing as well as could be expected.

An Unlucky Fish Day For Five Anglers That Forgot Licenses

Waters Around Rushville Must Be Attractive to Outsiders, Says Justice Stech After Placing Fine on 5 Men, Nabbed by Game Wardens.
Each Fisherman Gets $18.50 For Neglect. Seven Fined Since Sunday.

Flatrock river, in the vicinity of Rushville, has surely obtained a reputation as being one of the best bass fishing waters in the state.

This is the opinion expressed today by John P. Stech, local court justice, who handed out five fines to fishermen who came here to try their luck, and incidentally forgot about obtaining a license.

Two of the men, who were arrested
by deputy state game wardens, were from Richmond, and the other three are transients who are here with a carnival company.

The Richmond men gave their names as W. J. Hubbard and C. O.
Vickery. They were hauled into court by the game wardens, who happened to know one of the men as a resident of Richmond. Fine in such cases amount to $5.00 and costs, or $18.50 in all. They paid their fines and left for home.

The three criminal men, gave their names as Melvin Montgomery, Carl Dale and John J. Winters. They tried their luck along the river bank near

Assembly Will Be in Session There
Next Week, Starting Wednesday, Ending Sunday

MUSIC WILL FEATURE

Harp Ensemble Company is Headliner With Several Noted Lecturers - Booked on Program

The annual Milroy Chautauqua will be held there beginning Wednesday August 13 under the direction of the Mutual-Morgan Lyceum Company of which Glen MacCaddam is the director.

The assembly will last for five days ending Sunday, during which a delightful program has been arranged including several noted musical organizations, a group of players and some well known lecturers.

On the first day, Wednesday, the afternoon will be spent in the organization of the Junior Town. In the evening the Croatian Tamburica Orchestra, a group of five accomplished musicians, will render a concert.

On Thursday Major Hanley will speak on "The Making of a Masterpiece" in the afternoon following a prelude by the Alice Shrode Company, a company of dramatists and singers. In the evening the same company will give a concert followed by Mr. Hanley in another lecture on "Anarchy, Its Cause and Cure."

Friday afternoon will be spent in listening to one of the best string orchestras on the road, the De Marco Symphonic Harp Ensemble which will give a concert. In the evening,
which is community Welfare night,
this same group of musicians will give a prelude followed by Dr. J.
Franklin Babb with his lecture on "The One Hundred Percent Man."

Probably one of the best days of the program will be the fourth, Saturday, which has rightfully been called "Dramatic Day." In the after-

LAFOLLETTE IS OPPOSED TO KLAN

Third Party Candidate Today Is-

layed The Matter

IS "UNALTERABLY" AGAINST

Candidate Declares that the Klan Has Within its Own Body the Seeds of its Death

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Aug. 8—Robert M.
Lafollette met the Ku Klux Klan issue today with an open denunciation of the order by name.

"I am unalterably opposed to the evident purposes of the secret organization known as the Ku Klux Klan as disclosed by its public acts,"
the independent presidential candidate declared.

"It cannot long survive.
"Relying upon the sound judgment and good sense of the people, it is my opinion that such a movement is foredoomed. It has within its own body the seeds of its death."

Lafollette's first official statement of the issue was given in a letter to Robert P. Scripps, editorial of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, who wrote the senator suggesting that his position should be made known because of the national prominence—justly or unjustly—given

NEW PALESTINE MAN SHOOTS AN ITALIAN

Jimmy Milane, Member of a Railroad
Section Gang, Shot by Bert
Smith, Blacksmith

WIFE INVOLVED IN TROUBLE

Greenfield, Ind., Aug. 8—Bert
Smith, village blacksmith of New Palestine, is in jail here today, charged with shooting Jimmy Milane,
member of an Italian section gang.

Milane was taken to a hospital in Indianapolis with a bullet wound in his shoulder.

Smith according to Hancock authorities, shot Milane because of attentions the laborer was said to have paid to Mrs. Smith.

Other members of the section gang threatened to lynch Smith after the shooting and he was hurried to the jail here.

MAY CHANGE THEIR COURSE

American Fliers are Blocked in the Frozen Iceland Country

Reykjavik, Aug. 8—Temporarily baffled, the American round-the-world flight expedition leaders, held a council of war abroad the scout cruiser Richmond today to plan their campaign with the frozen north.
Lieut. Smith, Rear Admiral McRau-der and Commander Clarence Crum-rine discussed what should be done about getting the flight underway once more. An attempt will be made to find a suitable landing place on the Greenland coast.

The airmen were anxious to get under way because it is not such a great while before the ice will set in earnest. Lieut. Smith studied reports of other Greenland Harbors which might be available for the flight even though they are somewhat farther from Reykjavik.

APPOINTMENT IS ROUTINE MATTER

Department of Justice Recommends Promotion for A. B. Anderson, Federal Court Judge

COMMENT BY SEN. WATSON

Declares That Judge Anderson Does Not Want "Vacation Appointment"—Has Local Angle

The change in the Federal Court Bench, promoting Judge A. B. Anderson to the Circuit Court of Appeals, will probably be a routine of business in the regular December session of Congress, Senator James E. Watson of this city stated in an interview given at Indianapolis yesterday, where he stopped off for a while between speaking engagements.

Senator Watson commented upon several other political matters during his brief stay in that city. The attention of the promotion of the federal court judge, was called to his attention, because of an announcement made yesterday that the department of Justice had recommended his appointment.

With the promotion of Judge Anderson, it will cause a vacancy on the bench in this state, and among the 30 some odd candidate for the place, is Will M. Sparks, judge of the local circuit court, who is believed to have a good chance of being considered.

The dispatch from Indianapolis,
concerning the visit of the Indiana
senator, is as follows:

Senator James E. Watson, while in Indianapolis yesterday for the first time since the Republican state convention in May, held several conferences with political associates at the Hotel Severin and took stock of the Hoosier situation.

The senator "dropped off" for a day in Indianapolis while en route to Terre Haute to fill a speaking engagement in York, Ill., this afternoon.

The only reference the senator
made to the controversy over the removal of Bert Morgan as Federal prohibition director in Indiana was an expression of surprise that there would be any great amount of public interest in a job of this kind.

Senator Watson said that the action of the Department of Justice yesterday in formally recommending to the President the appointment of Judge A. B. Anderson to the bench of the Circuit Court of Appeals, is merely a routine matter. He said the department is charged with the investigation of persons recommended by the senators for these posts.

It is understood that Judge Anderson does not desire a "vacation appointment" and the change in the Federal bench probably will not take places until the next session of Congress in December.

Senator Watson would not discuss a possible successor to the Federal bench in Indiana when Judge Anderson is promoted. It is understood that Judge Robert Baltzell of Princeton,
now on the Circuit bench in Gibson county, will be recommended.

Among the Republican leaders who conferred with the senator were Joseph B. Kealing, national committeeman from Indiana; M. Bert Thurman, collector of internal revenue;
John Owen of Noblesville; Ora Davies, treasurer of state; Fwing Emi-

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Board of Directors Held Session to Complete Final Details For Opening on Sunday

TALENT IS EXCEPTIONAL

R. E. Mansfield, President, Issues
Statement Concerning Prospects
or the Annual Assembly

At a meeting of the officers and directors of the Rush county chautauqua, held Thursday evening, final arrangements were made for the opening of the seasons program at the Coliseum, in Memorial park on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Robert E. Mansfield, President of the Chautauqua, when asked today concerning the prospects for this year's meeting, August 10 to 17, inclusive, said: "The outlook is exceedingly promising for a successful season. The general financial situation has improved during the past year, especially with the farmers, and many Rush county citizens who have felt the necessity of practicing economy in the matter of expenditures for pleasure, and even educational entertainment, are viewing the prospect more hopefully and cheerfully and will, on this occasion, avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the chautauqua, and enjoying the splendid program provided.

"The advance sale of tickets has been very satisfactory, evidencing an interest in, and a desire on the part of the people to cooperate with the management in maintaining this institution, which has done much in the way of encouraging and maintaining community spirit in Rush county. In this connection I would call attention to the fact that those who have not already secured their tickets of the guarantors, which can now be obtained at $2.00 should do so at once.
After the opening session the season
tickets will be $2.50. Donald Ball, secretary of the association, will be at Hargrove & Brown's drug store on Saturday afternoon and evening
where he can be seen by guarantors for settlement for tickets disposed of
and will make arrangements for the sale of some unsold tickets. Season tickets can be secured at the above named store at any time, and also at Pitman & Wilson's drug store," Mr.
Mansfield said.

"The program for this year, one of the best ever offered by the chautauqua, is well balanced, varied and interesting. It includes music of a high standard of excellence, entertainment features of exceptional merit, and educational numbers of unusual interest. The program committee, guided by many years experience in selecting chautauqua talent,
has secured for this season a large

WILL ORGANIZE FOR DEFENSE DAY PLANS

R. E. Mansfield of This City, Appointed Manager for Sixth District Territory

DEMONSTRATION SEPT. 12

Robert E. Mansfield of this city has been appointed manager for the Sixth district in the Defense Day demonstration to be held throughout Indiana on September 12, according to his appointment made by John Goodwin of Brookville, a member of the state committee.

Mr. Mansfield stated today that he had accepted the appointment, and would soon visit the other seven counties in the district and appoint county chairmen.

The program is to be carried out in an organized form, as sponsored by Governor Branch, who has endorsed the proposal in this state. Mr. Mansfield will attend a meeting Tuesday
in Indianapolis of the district managers with the state committee, and plans will be formulated at this time.

The state committee appointed by
Gov. Branch consists of five men.
Mr. Goodwin of Brookville represents three congressional districts, the fourth, fifth and sixth, and in appointing Mr. Mansfield for this district he has started work on the organization of his territory.

$12 HOGS IN NOVEMBER?

It is being freely predicted that November hogs will sell for $11.50 to $12.00. At the rate they have advanced the past two weeks this seems to be a conservative estimate.

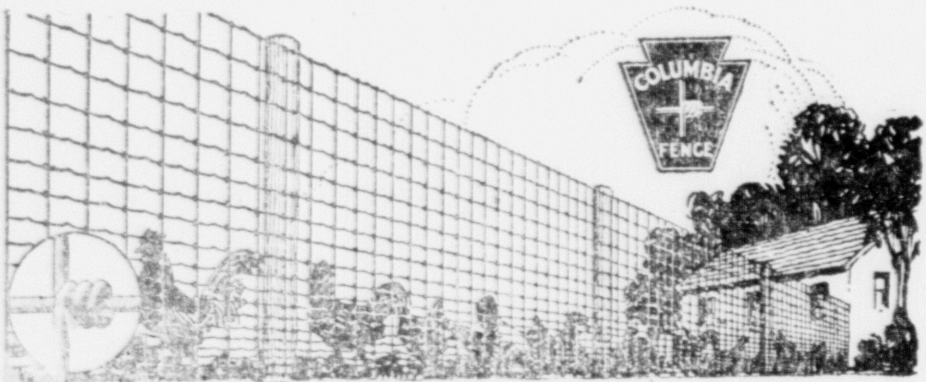

Due to the scarcity of all classes of hogs and the probability of soft corn, feeders and all other sizes are in demand. Even at the present prices can you afford to take the risk of being cleaned out just as you are about to realize a profit?

Beware of cholera. Prevent it. Do not wait until your hogs are sick. Our prices on serum are lower this year than ever before, and we guarantee to save you money. All of our serum and virus is government inspected.

Health and Vitality For Women

Health and Vitality can be yours without narcotics or drugs. Keeping well is largely a matter of keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to women as evidenced by headaches, backache and irritability. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such conditions and restoring sick and ailing women to health. It surely pays every suffering woman to try it.

ANACONDAA Fox With Its Tail Cut Off

A Fox that had its tail cut off went around preaching to other Foxes that tails were very unfashionable. But the other Foxes only laughed at him.

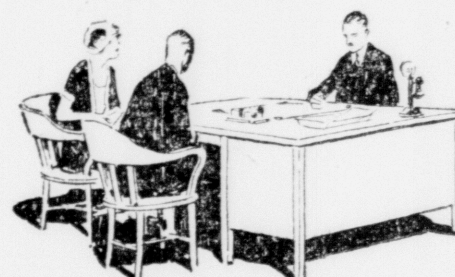

The ANACONDA PLAN is based on the idea of bringing high-grade Fertilizers as close to the Users as possible, and cutting out all unnecessary freights and expenses. It will be extended as quickly as we can through the whole Middle West. Nothing can stop it, because it is an ECONOMICAL plan. The wise fellows that use it will SAVE MONEY.

But every improvement brings forth a Jonah who says that it will not work. Jonah either wants to cut off its tail, or else tie his own tail onto it, for some purpose of his own. We suggest that Jonah be told to OFFER SOMETHING AS GOOD, if he tries to interfere. Anaconda Stocks of Superphosphate, Potash and Ammonia at over thirty points in Indiana.

 "The musical numbers on the program presented this year have been arranged with a view to gratifying the wishes of a discriminating public in the matter of high class music. The entertainment features are of exceptional merit, and have been arranged to meet the demand of a large number of the patrons of chautauqua for this particular class of amusements.
 "This year, as has been the general custom, the county teachers institute will be held in connection with the chautauqua, the morning session of which will be conducted in the assembly room of the court house, and the afternoon and evening programs presented by the institute, in the coliseum in Memorial Park. An unusual array of talent has been secured by the board of education for the institute work which, working in cooperation with the chautauqua enables the management to present an exceptionally strong and varied program."

Prayer:—O Holy One, our hearts are fixed trusting in Thee.

Support the Chautauqua

Next week begins the twentieth annual session of the Rush County Chautauqua.

As an institution, the Chautauqua ranks next in importance to the home, the school and the church.

It is the source of abundant entertainment, instruction and inspiration.

It is the only occasion in Rush County during the year where friends and neighbors may mingle for eight days in friendly and kindly social intercourse.

It offers to every holder of a season ticket great value for the insignificant cost to him.

Each individual has the benefit of an annual expenditure for talent and management costs of almost four thousand dollars for the small payment of two dollars.

Nowhere in the world can so much value be had for so little cost.

The business element of the city can well afford to support the Chautauqua, because it annually brings to Rushville more people from outside territory, than any other event in the whole year.

This year the assembly will have an additional appeal by reason of its location in the greatly improved Memorial Park.

Much has been done during the present year to beautify and make the park more attractive.

All in all, there are many reasons why every progressive citizen of Rush County should support the Chautauqua.

Give it your most loyal and enthusiastic endorsement.

College Radicalism

The average small community never worries about radicalism. The Reds are regarded as a foreign substance.

But the average small community does not take into consideration that the young people whom it is sending out into the world to the colleges through the country may be confronted with radicalism in its worse form. It has been proved that the Reds of Europe, backing the Reds of America, are seeking in many ways to develop socialism and communism in this country.

They realize that if they can implant their teachings in the minds of immature young people, they will be enabled to obtain results that it would take many years longer to accomplish.

When parents get ready to select a higher educational institution for their children, they would do well to make sure that the agents of radicalism have not worked their way into the college or university of their selection with the intention of boring from the inside.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON. — Washington is no summer resort. Through many weeks each year the capital city stew in a humid heat that saps the energy and frazzles the nerves.

At such times bureau chiefs and department heads have a habit of finding important government business calling them elsewhere. Diplomats, being less diplomatic, frankly pack their portfolios and portmanteaux and seek cooler spots.

But for many thousands of government workers, no such opportunity to dodge the sizzling dog-days can be found.

To offset this situation for the stay-at-homes, the workers who must carry on the government's business while the bosses are away, Uncle Sam has provided what is probably the most extensive and varied recreational lay-out to be found in any city, anywhere.

INSIDE the 73 square miles of the District of Columbia there are no less than 505 "government reservations," ranging from small grass plots of a few hundred square feet to Potomac and Rock Creek parks, the latter containing 1700 acres.

And on all the larger of these reservations, play spaces have been set aside and facilities provided for almost any kind of outdoor sport that can be imagined.

Swimming, golfing, boating, basketball, tennis, football and basketball are of course provided. These are the standard brands of recreation provided in most public play places.

But in addition to these, Washington also offers its tired workers a cricket field, two polo fields, a croquet field, a curling ball field, an archery court, volley ball courts, hockey fields, soccer fields, quail courts and a general athletic field.

FOR golf alone there are no less than four courses, two of nine holes and two of 18.

There are 52 public tennis courts and 17 baseball diamonds. And in addition to the public bathing beach in the tidal basin, there is, near the Washington monument, a juvenile swimming pool.

According to the records, golf is the most popular sport in the capital, 277,777 players having checked in on the public links last year. Swimming comes second, with 175,130, and tennis third with 95,000. Croquet—we almost forgot the croquet courts—provided the thrills for 523 of the less strenuously inclined.

THE next extension of the public play program of the capital may be the inauguration of public riding stables, to provide mounts for folks who would like to ramble on horseback along the District's bridle paths.

There are already more than 50 miles of these bridle paths, but to date they have been "exclusive." Only folks who own their own mounts, or who can afford the high charges assessed by private riding academies, have been able to enjoy them.

Col. C. O. Sherrill, in charge of public grounds, now recommends that cavalry horses, supernannated from active service, be utilized to stock a stable near one of the parks, from which they can be rented at a nominal sum to the public.

If that is done, the last "exclusive" recreation of the capital will have been made common property.

But Uncle Sam believes good players make good workers, and no part of his public expenditure is figured as returning better dividends than those dollars put into providing public recreation.

If You Took an X-Ray of Your Pillows

Unless you've had your pillows thoroughly washed lately, you'd be a bit shocked by what an X-Ray would reveal.

Feathers have a particular affinity for dust particles. Dust and soil quickly penetrate the thick ticking and lodge inside—simply beating pillows won't clean them. Thorough washing is necessary.

We have a special way of washing pillows in their own ticks, with great quantities of pure, rainsoft water and mild, white soap. We have the proper facilities for rinsing them—another very important item. And then we dry them by tossing them gently in a soft breeze of warm, fresh air, until every feather is sweetly clean, dry and fluffy. The better the feathers the better our work.

It's most economical, too. Send us your pillows tomorrow, and you'll be delighted with our service. Phone, and our representative will call.

Plans for Air Mail Route From Chicago to New Orleans Are Being Formulated

WOULD PASS NEAR HERE

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 7.—Concerted effort is under way today to establish an air mail route from Chicago to New Orleans, by Evansville and eight other cities along the route.

The postoffice department here has agreed to cooperate with the city and the chamber of commerce to establish the route and have it pass through this city.

Nashville, Tenn., is already in the fight to get the route. Recently Nashville business men hired a plane to make the trip and found that it beat the mail train by five hours.

The route would connect up with the New York-San Francisco air mail which is now in operation. It has been proposed that the route be laid through St. Louis, but it was found that the route being sought by these eight cities is shorter. Included in the cities are Terre Haute, Ind., Birmingham, and Montgomery, Ala.; Nashville, Tenn., and Evansville.

How to build up your Weight

TO be under weight often proves too fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus.

That's why S.S.S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S.S.S. will build them.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

HONEY

We have on hand a large quantity of high grade comb and extracted clover honey.

Extracted honey should not be confused with strained honey, for extracted honey is far superior. Extracted honey is produced without breaking the combs. With a hot knife the cappings are cut from the combs, which are then placed in wire baskets inside the extractor. These baskets revolve so fast that all the honey is thrown out of the cells. The honey is then drawn in cans and the combs returned to the hives to be filled again by the bees.

All our comb honey is produced in section boxes. We are sure you will be pleased with either our comb or-extracted honey.

OLYMPIC TEAM HAS DISBANDED

Champion Athletes Who Made Such Impressive Showing at Paris Scatter to all Parts of U. S.

ARRIVED HOME YESTERDAY

Officials Expressed Opinion That Games Were in no Danger as Result of Outbreaks in Paris

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Aug. 8—America's Olympic team, which made such an impressive showing at the recent Paris games, had disbanded today and the champion athletes had scattered to all parts of the country.

Arriving yesterday on the liner America, the athletes were given a reception by the city and were then officially discharged by Colonel Robert M. Thompson, president of the American Olympic committee.

"Keep in shape, boys, work hard and we'll all be together again in 1928," Col. Thompson said when he was taking leave of the athletes.

Officials of the team and the athletes expressed the opinion that the Olympic games were in no danger as a result of some of the outbreaks in Paris. They said the games were too big to be hurt by a little poor sportsmanship and they felt sure that Amsterdam would have just as many teams and just as many athletes as were entered at Paris.

American officials were assured before leaving Paris that Amsterdam would be able to organize and conduct the 1928 games. The Amsterdam committee has not raised any funds, but the Holland officials gave assurance that they would be able to get the necessary money.

The international committee intimated that the Amsterdam committee would have to submit evidence in two years that the games would be properly organized and conducted, or Los Angeles would be nominated. California officials, however, objected to the possibility of being named as a late pinch hitter, claiming that it would take them four years to perfect their own organization.

Most of the American athletes will jump right back into training for the national championships. The majority of them are college students and many of them are star football players who will get right back into the grind of training.

The national championship this year have great possibilities this year and it is likely that a number of new records will be made as the athletes are all in good condition and they have profited by the work in Paris.

son of Vincennes. Second district chairman, Mrs. Vivian T. Wheatcraft, vice chairman of the state committee and director of the women's division of the campaign, and Mrs. Alma Miller of Lagrange, secretary to State Chairman Clyde A. Wall.

Charles G. Dawes, vice presidential nominee, will make a wonderful impression on the public during the coming campaign. He said Dawes will be natural. The impression that exists in some quarters that Dawes might "run wild" and speak his piece even though politically embarrassing is regarded as absurd by Senator Watson.

"Gen. Dawes is a logical man," the senator said, "and while he is not inclined to make declarations recklessly."

LAFFOLLETTE IS OPPOSED TO KLAN

the question.

Heretofore Laffollette has shunned all Klan queries into the background because he believed—and still believes as he says in his letter to Strips—that the "all-embracing" issue of this campaign is to break the combined power of the private monopoly system over the political life of the American people.

Laffollette expressed regret that "questions involving religious opinion" had been raised. Even after the Republican convention wrote its religious freedom plank and the Democratic convention staged its bitter floor fight over the Klan plank, Laffollette presented his convention with a platform that took no recognition of the Klan issue or religion. He stressed economic ills and remedies.

In this, his first open statement on the issue, Laffollette quotes Abraham Lincoln and Thomas Jefferson to support his stand. He recalls a letter written by Lincoln in 1855 in which the Civil war president declares that certain forces at that time were apparently attempting to change the Constitution so that it reads: "All men are created equal except negroes and foreigners and Catholics."

Jefferson, the man who wrote the nation's Constitution is quoted by Laffollette as saying in 1803 that "I never will by word or act bow to the shrine of intolerance, or admit a right of inquiry into the religious opinions of others."

BIRTHS

Word has been received here of the birth of twin babies to the wife of Thomas R. Crawford at Atlanta, Georgia. The boy was named Thomas Jr. and the girl Flora Miriam. Mr. Crawford was formerly a resident of this city and at one time passed the Daily Republican.

A baby girl weighing nine and three quarter pounds was born to the wife of Harold Stewart this morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lakin in this city. The baby was named Mary Janis. Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Sylvia Lakin.

REFEREE BEST JUDGE OF FOUL

By FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Aug. 8—Deciding the question of a foul in the prize ring is always a precarious business. Boxers, from time immemorial, and one of the latest of these is Georges Carpentier, have shown adeptness in taking advantage of technicalities involved in the Marquis of Queensbury rules.

As it stands at present, the referee is the sole judge. If a boxer makes a claim of foul, or the referee observes a foul blow, he must award the fight to the aggrieved party.

Often, the third man in the ring is not in a position to judge exactly where a blow landed. This was the case when Tunney stopped Carpentier. Andy Griffin, ordinarily the coolest and most able of referees, had to decide whether the Frenchman had been struck low. He decided to the contrary, stuck to his guns and the outcome was as satisfactory as possible under the turbulent circumstances with which Carpentier and his crafty manager, Francois Deschamps, sometimes manage to surround a defeat.

It is argued by some that the judges should be polled in an instance like this, since they are so distributed about the ring that one might conceivably have been in a better position to judge the blow in question than was the referee.

But think what this would mean. A tired fighter, struck in the stomach, would yell, "Foul". The referee would have to stop the fight, and consult the judges. Meanwhile, seated on the floor, the tired fighter would have recovered his breath and could go on with the fight. Moreover, he would be able to continue to cry "Foul" on similar occasions, ad lib.

Mistakes happen under the present system—and one MAY have been made when Carpentier lost to Tunney—but it is a better system than the proposed substitute.

Referees are generally old-timers. They know the game and the men, and not much is "put over" on them. They are keen of eye, quick of decision and have the confidence of absolute authority which would be lacking if their decisions were disputable. It would be as though "appeal" were permitted from the decisions of an umpire at a baseball game on balls and strikes.

A fighter is entitled to all he can get—within the rules. A good idea is to have as few rules as possible.

It would be no new thing to have a good referee make a mistake in an important fight. Sometimes it seems as though the more important the fight the bigger the mistake.

Certainly, during the never-to-be-forgotten Dempsey-Firpo go, there were fouls galore. But that affair had developed into a man-to-man survival of the fittest sort of a scrap, and the referee would have been criticized if he had observed the strict letter of ring law and awarded the fight to Firpo.

Once, when Jimmy Wilde was losing his title to Pancho Villa, the little Filipino started a punch with the bell, and it knocked the Englishman kicking. It was technically a foul, because the blow landed after the bell had rung, but it wasn't elamied.

When Dempsey won the heavy-weight crown from Willard at Toledo, he was permitted by his seconds to leave the ring at the end of the first round, under the impression that he had knocked out the giant, who lay stunned on the canvas. But the timekeeper decided the bell had saved Jess, and there was a hasty call to get Dempsey back into the ring before Willard's seconds should claim the fight for their man on the ground that Dempsey had disqualified himself by quitting the ring.

By the way, Andy Griffin, who refereed the recent much-disputed Tunney-Carpentier fight, says he did not try to stop the fight in the tenth round, as we all imagined. Griffin says that after the official physician had indicated by a sign that Carpentier appeared in a bad way, he asked the Frenchman if he wanted to quit. It was then that Georges spat out his indignant "No" through bleeding lips.

The Yankees are beginning to root for Ruth to put on a little spurt and better his home-run record of 1921.

Mrs. Gerald Wheland entertained at her home 359 Burgess Avenue, Indianapolis, Tuesday with a Breakfast bridge, honoring Miss Dorothy Sparks, a bride-elect. Covers were laid for fourteen.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church was held Thursday afternoon in the back yard of the church parsonage in North Main street. Mrs. Albert Allen had charge of the bible study and Mrs. Joe Amos gave a very interesting review of "The Life on the Congo." Mrs. L. E. Brown gave a short talk on the convention she attended at Bethany Park last week, which was very interesting and instructive. The program closed with a clever reading by Mrs. Carl Hester. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the program by the August division.

Miss Lois Reeves entertained with a luncheon-bridge Thursday afternoon at her home in North Main street, honoring Miss Dorothy Sparks who will be married to Horace Foster of Pittsburgh, Pa., August 16. The luncheon was served at one o'clock and during the serving of the salad course, the hostess carried out a complete surprise to her friends. Concealed between the wafers, served with the salad course, was the announcement of her engagement to Henry Robert Woodward, of Peoria Ill., the wedding to take place in October. Mr. Woodward attended Wisconsin University and is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Miss Reeves is a graduate of DePauw University and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Following the serving of the luncheon the remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing bridge.

Miss Raeburn Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lowe, living south west of the city, and Marion Stanley of Knightstown, were united in marriage Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Main Street Christian church parsonage by the Rev. L. E. Brown. They were attended by a few of their friends from Knightstown and this city.

The bride was a graduate of the Webb high school this spring and Mr. Stanley, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Stanley, graduated from the Knightstown school in 1921 and since then has been a student at Purdue University. Those who witnessed the ceremony were the Misses Lolita Stiers, Grace Banta, and Marian Lucas of this city, and Robert Cooper of Knightstown and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sparks and son Ben Jr.

Miss Marie Whelan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Erwin Whelan, of

Pine Bluff, Ark., and niece of J. F. Ryan of Orange, was united in marriage to Cecil Isaac of Indianapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Isaac of Franklin avenue, Connersville, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the First Methodist Episcopal church in Connersville. The ceremony was performed by Dr. John Wesley McCall, pastor of the church.

The ceremony was performed before the altar which was banked with ferns, palms and pink gladioluses. At both ends of the altar candelabras with large white candles were placed to add to the decorating scheme. Swinging brass bird cages and canaries were also used to add to the beauty of the decorations. The bridal music was furnished by Miss Marian Monroe, organist, Miss Frances Foster, violinist and Mrs. Eugene Beatty, soprano soloist, all of Connersville.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white tulle and adorned with beaded ornaments. She wore a picture hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of white gladioluses and smilax. Her father gave her in marriage. Her attendants were Miss Mildred Conquet, maid of honor of Connersville, Miss Edith Schweikle and Miss Grace Hemminger, bridesmaids; and Miss Eta Jane Bertsch, was the flower girl. Keith Holloway of Indianapolis acted as best man and E. Eugene Transbarger of Anderson and Elmer Martin of Greensburg were ushers.

Following the wedding a reception was held for fifty guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Conquet in Connersville. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac went to Indianapolis where they will be at home to their friends after September 1 in the Spink apartments on Illinois street. Mr. Isaac is a graduate from the Connersville high school and is secretary of the boys department of the Central Y. M. C. A. He is also related in this city. The bride is a talented pianist and teacher of piano, and for the past four years has had a studio in Connersville. She is well known in the Orange vicinity, where she visited on a number of occasions with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ryan. Among those from Orange who attended the wedding were Mrs. Ida McKee, Mrs. E. M. Starr, Mrs. A. B. George, Mrs. Gus Bowen and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ryan. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whelan, parents of the bride, of Pine Bluff, Ark., is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ryan before returning to their home.

A very interesting and unique organization was formed Wednesday at Memorial Park when the former and present music pupils of Mrs. Lucy Wellman Meredith held a picnic. At 10:30 a. m. a very interesting program was given as follows: American,

all; Devotional, O. P. Wamsley; piano solo, Robert Harris; violin solo, Max Engle; piano solo, Thelma Jackson; class song, Dunning class; reading, Lavienna Compton; trio, Violin, piano, bells, Engle family; vocal solo, Charlotte Norris; roll call; music, Max and Eugene Engle.

After the program a bountiful picnic in dinner was served in the coliseum to one hundred pupils. Miss Viola Jay acted as toastmaster and clever toasts were given by O. P. Wamsley, "Music"; Mrs. Belle Matney, "Treble Clef Club"; Mrs. Belle Ball, "Our Teacher"; Mrs. Backous, "Reminiscence". At this time the first musical organization of the kind ever formed in Rush county was made with the following officers: President, O. P. Wamsley, Rushville; vice president, Mrs. G. D. Nichols, Springfield, Ohio; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Rushville. Much credit for this organization is given to Mrs. Meredith, who is one of the foremost music teachers of this section of the state. She conducts a private music school in this city for both beginners and advanced pupils. Of the four hundred and fifty names on the roll, ninety-eight answered and there were thirty-four remembered, who were deceased.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. F. E. Engle, Eugene and Max Engle, Mrs. E. D. Colfield, Indianapolis; Mrs. Kella Alter, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mrs. Jeffery, Connersville; Mrs. Backous, Dalton Backous, Robert Handy, Misses Roberta Hayes, Marjorie Keaton, Helen Wilson of Morristown; Mrs. G. D. Nickols, Springfield, Ohio, Miss Thelma Jackson, Bentonville; Mrs. Paul Norris and Mrs. Belle Ball of Carthage.

The Misses Verl Daubenspeck and Beatrice and Lucile Haselby were dinner guests of the Misses, Edna and Zelma Dolan Wednesday evening.

The Rebekah Lodge will meet at the Modern Woodman Hall Friday evening at eight o'clock.

Mrs. A. J. Perkins, Mrs. Carl Perkins, Mrs. Dallas Hardwick, and son Wallace Keith, of New Salem and Mrs. Omer Perkins of Lebanon and Mrs. John Gibson of this city enjoyed a picnic Wednesday at Webb's ford.

Heavy rains, accompanied by severe lightning and strong winds caused extensive losses to crops and property.

So far no reports of casualties in that section had reached the Twin Cities.

Strong Wind Is Reported

Madison, Wis., Aug. 8—Wind and rain ravaged southern central Wisconsin suffered another devastating blow early today as wind, rain and lightning swept havoc across the south end of the state.

The wind, of cyclonic velocity, toy-wind, followed by heavy downpours with trees and barns. Lightning crackled in the wake of the strong while swelled down stream for the third time in a week.

Telephone and telegraph wires suffered most. The winds were believed to be dying gusts of tornadoes sweeping in from Iowa, where heavy damage was done during the night.

For the final day on Sunday the De Willo Concert Company, a group of musicians and singers will be on the platform. They will give the prelude in the afternoon followed by an entertainment by Emily Waterman, a reader. In the night, what is called Joy Night, a Lawn Fete will be given by the Junior Chautauqua, a concert by the De Willo Company and the assembly will be closed by another entertainment by Emily Waterman.

An Unlucky Fish Day For Five Anglers That Forgot Licenses

the carnival grounds. Game wardens spied them, asked them where they lived, and then asked them for their licenses.

In this case the carnival men were hard pressed to pay their fines, and were making an effort today to obtain the money, rather than spend 19 days in jail.

The law reads that all residents of a county may fish within the county without a license. If you live in some other county, a license is necessary.

The law contradicts itself regarding fishing in adjoining counties without a license, and it is best to have a dollar license, if the fish bite better in an adjoining county.

The five arrests this morning brought the total to seven, as a Terre Haute man and a Newcastle man were fined Sunday following their arrest by the game wardens.

"Ride For Your Life"

After playing a southern mountaineer for several weeks in "The Night Message," the Peery Poore Sheehan production filmed at Universal City, Howard Truesdell's changed his characterization to that of a western pioneer in Hoot Gibson's new starring feature, "Ride For Your Life," which will be shown at the Mystic theatre today.

This is Truesdell's second appearance in a Gibson film within the last few months. His characterization of the irascible dad of the heroine in "Out of Luck" was considered an outstanding piece of acting.

Gibson's new picture is a story of the early days in California when gold mining was the sounding note of adventure. It is an adaptation by Raymond L. Schrock of a magazine story by Johnston McCulley.

The theme of the story is woven around an easy dispositioned young cowboy who is rebuked by a pretty girl who tells him that she'd rather have a handbit for a husband than a lad of his temperament. The youth play handbit in response to the girl's whim.

Laura La Plante, recently made a star by Universal, plays the romantic leading role. Edward Sedgwick, director of the "Ramblin' Kid," and other big Gibson productions, handled the megaphone.

duced, at the Castle theatre today and Saturday.

The star, Richard Talmadge, needs no introduction to the screen, proclaimed by the press and exhibitors everywhere, a second edition of Douglas Fairbanks, and the surest box-office bet of all time. Smiling, daring, carefree, reckless, with a winning personality that endears himself to all motion picture loving fans in Thru The Flames, his latest thrilling, smashing production, he will establish himself for all times as the greatest thrill artist on the screen.

Charlotte Pierce, as Dan Merrill's sweetheart, once more repeats her usual successful performance as in "The Barnstormer," "The Courtship of Miles Standish," "Gas, Oil and Water," etc. Edith Yorke has established herself as the most popular portrayer of mother parts on the screen.

Fred Kohler as the neighborhood "bully" and leader of the gang of thieves is brutally convincing—the type of "heavy" you wait for in hopeful anticipation to get his just desserts.

Big Show at Indianapolis

A rumor heard sometime since is now confirmed by the official announcement that the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows will positively exhibit at Indianapolis, Aug. 26.

That this biggest of all amusement institutions is to come within easy distance is of unusual interest to local people because of the many changes that have taken place in this mammoth circus since it last visited this locality.

The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey super-array of men and women of eight hundred of the world's men stars has now reached a total premier riders, aerialists, gymnast and athletic champions. There are a hundred of the funniest clowns on earth. The total personnel of this amazing circus exceeds sixteen hundred persons. More than fifty trainers and keepers are alone required for the splendid troupe of jungle animals that are exhibited in four steel arenas as part of the gigantic program. The pachyderm lineup numbers forty-three elephants; for the main tent stages as well as the three rings are now occupied by elephant troupes. This is the first time in circus history that five herds of elephants have been presented in a single display. The trained horse numbers have been augmented by the importation of new companies of supposedly untractable Russian stallions. Thus the various displays—sixteen in all—are equally distributed throughout the entire length of the mammoth main-tent.

Some idea of the increased size of this great circus may be had from the estimate made by a New York statistician when it was playing at Madison Square Garden. After taking a census of the Big Show's people, horses, trained animals and the thousand animals contained in its menagerie, he announced that were

it possible to place them shoulder to shoulder they would form a line two miles long! A hundred railroad cars, all double length, are used to transport this enormous institution, its properties, paraphernalia, huge equipments. The latter include many innovations for the comfort of patrons. Among these are forty Jumbo-electric fans operated by specially designed dynamo sets that audiences may enjoy cool and freshly filtered air throughout the hours of performance.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO REPAIR AND CHANGE COURSE OF DRAIN

State of Indiana, Rush County, ss: Rush Circuit Court. In Vacation. In the Matter of the Petition of Lee Roy Divilbiss to Repair and Change Course of Drain.

To Lola B. Hudelson, Stella M. Hudelson, Lula Dalrymple, Hettie J. Roberts and Carrie L. Atkins:

Each of you are hereby notified that I have filed in the office of the Clerk of the Rush Circuit Court my petition for the repair, change of course and size of tile of the Lee Roy Divilbiss et al. and Samuel H. Trabue et al. drains; that said drains are described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the Samuel H. Trabue et al. drain about 190 rods south of the north end of said drain and on the lands of Frank Hudelson in the north half of the north half of the northwest quarter of Section 16, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, thence northeasterly through Section 16 across the highway, thence northeasterly about 40 rods to a point in the southwest quarter of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, thence northwesterly across said southwest quarter, thence in a northerly direction along said Lee Roy Divilbiss et al. drain across the northwest quarter of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East to a point where said drain ends on the lands of Omer Abernathy about 25 rods south of the north line of said northwest quarter. Said drain as described affecting the north portion of the Samuel H. Trabue et al. drain, and the remainder being the main line of the Lee Roy Divilbiss et al. drain; also, the lateral drain of the Lee Roy Divilbiss drain beginning at a point on the main line of said Lee Roy Divilbiss drain about 90 rods north of the south line of the southwest quarter of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, and thence in a northwesterly direction through said southwest quarter to a point on the lands of Lee Roy Divilbiss near the west line of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, where the said lateral drain ends.

Said petition will be docketed on the fourth judicial day of the September Term, 1924, of the Rush Circuit Court, the same being September 4th, 1924.

TO LOCATE "WORKSHOP OF WORLD" IN STATE

Predicted in Survey of Prospective Growth of Industry And Population Around Great Lakes

TO BUILD NEW POWER PLANT

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8—In Indiana as in other states around the Great Lakes will be located the "workshop of the world" in the next twenty-five years.

This was the prediction today in a survey by industrial engineers of the prospective growth of industry and population in this territory.

Here is what the report indicates for Indiana during the quarter of a century:

1. Increase in population of four and one-half millions.
2. That Indiana will be made the site for great "super-power" plants that will produce at least 3,000,000 horse-power.
3. That Indiana industries will be increased, including great increases in steel production in the Lake county district.

New power stations are being built by the Insull interests near Gary on Lake Michigan, and the Brewer interests have opened a station on the Wabash River at Terre Haute and other superpower stations are being built and contemplated.

According to the report the following increases will be made in the Hoosier urban populations during the period:

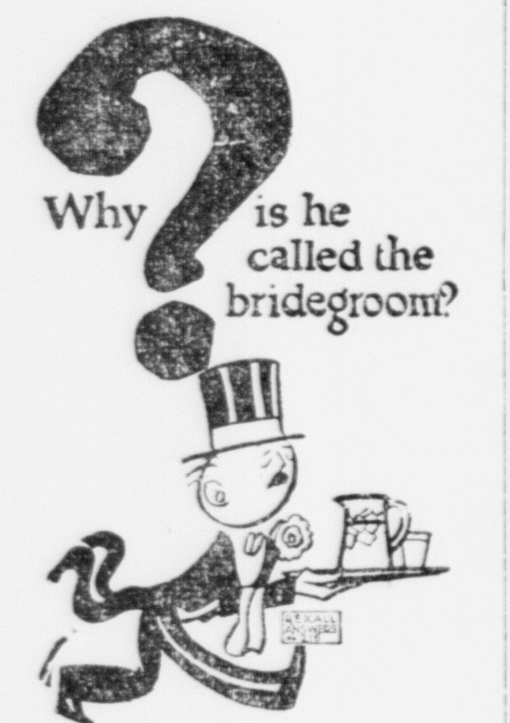

Indianapolis, from 350,000 to more than 500,000; Terre Haute from 66,000 to 100,000; Frankfort from 12,000 to 18,000; and Clinton from 11,000 to 16,500.

Columbus—Lafayette Lane, 80 and toothless, was uninjured when he fell out of a second story window during a dream in which he thought a dentist was pulling his teeth.

Gary—A few hours after three boys were released with a lecture for stealing 150 golf balls, they were arrested by police again for stealing 150 more.

Rush County Chautauqua

Coliseum Memorial Park Rushville

AUGUST 10th to 17th

The most cherished community enterprise, the Rush County Chautauqua, presents its twentieth annual program, confident of its merit and your approval.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 10th 2:00 P. M.—Prelude by the Chicago Sextette. This company has been selected from among the best orchestral players of Chicago. Every member is master of his instrument. Lecture—Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon. Rev. Wedderspoon is pastor of the St. James Methodist Episcopal Church of Chicago, and is noted as one of the most eloquent and gifted divines of great pulpit orators.

SUNDAY EVENING, AUGUST 10th, 7:00 P. M.—Prelude by the Chicago Sextette. Lecture—Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 11th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. Those who have heard Mrs. Stubbs say that her child work activities will be a leading feature of the week's program. Prelude—Howard Russell Revue. Mr. Russell is well known and is regarded as a leading baritone, an artist of great merit. He sings humorous numbers just as well as his ballads and dramatic numbers. 3:00 P. M.—Lecture—Dr. Leon H. Vincent. Those who heard Dr. Vincent last year know that his lecture this year will be among the best and will be one of the big drawing cards.

MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 11th, 7:30 P. M.—Howard Russell Revue. 8:30 P. M.—Lecture—L. A. Convis. Lewis A Convis is a very interesting speaker on Russia and Siberia. He will tell you of these countries, their people and their problems with special regard to conditions in which America is interested.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 12th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. Prelude—Howard Russell Revue. 3:00 P. M.—Play "Her Husband's Wife." This company consists of six persons and carries sufficient scenery to present the play most attractively.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 12th, 7:30 P. M.—Play, "Six Cylinder Love." It is good, clean, wholesome fun all the way through with a clear cut message which you cannot dodge.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 13th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Mrs. Martha J. Stubbs. Prelude—The Wells Company. An exceptionally distinctive and versatile entertaining organization. This company is one of the best two-person companies on the Chautauqua platform today. They feature the presentation of a complete play as a part of their offerings. 3:00 P. M.—Play, "The Atonement" by The Wells Company.

Season Tickets can be had from guarantors at $2.00 each. After reading the above program you have no doubt come to the conclusion that it is well worth your time and small amount of money. Telephone some guarantor and have your tickets reserved.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 13th, 7:30 P. M.—Prelude, The Wells Company. 8:30 P. M., "The Children's Circus." This is a feature which every child in the community will desire to see and hear. It will delight all children, whether their age be six or sixty. Altogether it is the most complete novelty act which has been placed on the Chautauqua programs for years.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 14th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. 2:30 P. M., Operetta by The Montague Company. This company has gained great popularity every where through their renditions of light opera selections, with special costuming and stage settings. Each one of the four artists comprising the company has a splendid reputation.

THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 14th, 7:30 P. M.—Prelude, The Montague Company. 8:30 P. M., Lecture, Gov. Charles H. Brough. His great lecture "America's Leadership of the World" is a rare combination of patriotic inspiration and educational value, seasoned with anecdotes and witticisms. He is a well known educator and writer on national problems.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 15th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. 2:30 P. M., Concert by Williams' Jubilee Singers. The members of this company have been trained in some of America's best schools, and should be able to entertain you.

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 15th, 7:30 P. M.—Prelude by Williams Jubilee Singers. 8:30 P. M., Lecture by Dr. M. S. Rice. Dr. Rice will deliver his famous lecture, "Junk." With striking personality and forceful delivery this lecture ranks second to no other production in America today.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 16th, 2:30 P. M.—Lecture—"The Instincts of Childhood" by Martha J. Stubbs.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 17th, 2:15 P. M.—Opening Exercises. 2:30 P. M., Concert by Adanac Quartet. This male quartet is one of the leading musical organizations of Canada. They specialize in the best music literature and their renditions will delight not only the most exacting critic but afford honest pleasure to all who enjoy good music.

SUNDAY EVENING, AUGUST 17th, 7:00 P. M.—Prelude by Adanac Quartet. 8:00 P. M., Lecture by Prof. Ernest Ray Moulton. He is professor in the University of Chicago and is an internationally known authority on astronomy. His subject is "The Origin, Development and Destruction of Worlds."

VIOLENT STORMS DO MUCH DAMAGE

Five Killed, Scores Injured and Millions in Property Loss Reported in Several States

Rain, Wind, Hail and Floods, Combined with Tornado in Some Places

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 8—Five are dead, at least a score injured and property damage estimated to exceed three million dollars, in two violent storms which swept Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin and parts of Minnesota Thursday night and early today.

Two persons were killed at Black River Falls, Wisconsin, Thursday night and additional deaths were reported from Osseo, Bloomer and New Auburn, Wisconsin. The storm struck Black River Falls at 6 p. m.

Nebraska Is Flooded

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 8—Rain, wind, hail and floods damaged Nebraska and western Iowa to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars last night and early today.

Thirty telephone toll lines out of Omaha were down and telegraph service was meager.

The worst damage was done in the vicinity of Columbus where the Loup river left its banks, carrying much livestock and inundating fields in a strip several miles wide and 35 miles long. All bridges over the Loup, Beaver and Cedar rivers were damaged or washed away.

Six inches of rain fell at St. Edwards, flooding the town to a depth of three feet. A chautauqua was in session in a tent at St. Edwards when the storm broke. The tent was whipped to shreds and 300 persons were forced to safety.

A long distance telephone message just received from Des Moines, Iowa said:

"One of the worst storms in the history of Des Moines struck this city at 5:15 a. m. today.

"Wire communication with the outside world was severed, trees and telephone poles snapped at their base and a large number of roofs blown off of houses and buildings.

"So far no casualties have been reported.

"All tents at Camp Dodge, where several thousand citizen-soldiers are encamped, were blown away and the soldiers left without shelter while a heavy rain and hail fell.

Iowa Has Big Loss

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 8—Storms swept northern Iowa last night and early today causing heavy damage and raising havoc with communication.

TELLS OF INVENTIONS IN A PERIOD OF LIFE

Raymond Springer, Attorney of Connorsville, Delivers Excellent Talk To Kiwanians

MODERN DAY DEVELOPMENTS

Reviewing the marvelous developments of the country in the way of inventions and progress, Raymond Springer, an attorney of Connorsville, addressed the Kiwanis club Thursday noon in a rapid-fire talk, showing the wonderful achievements within the scope of the life of a man, who is now 80 years of age.

The speaker pointed out that all of the great inventions and strides in the present day achievements had come within the 80 year period, and he touched upon each step in a most creditable manner.

Mr. Springer went back to the earlier inventions including the steamboat, locomotives and similar things, and led up to the present day inventions of electricity, airplanes, submarines and telephones, including the wireless and radio inventions of recent years.

Besides Mr. Springer other club guests included Judge Will M. Sparks of this city, and Winfield Stephens also of this city, who recently purchased the Quality Bake Shop.

ITALIAN CONSUL IS HELD

Indianapolis Officers Hold Him Despite His Protests

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8—Despite his vigorous protests of diplomatic immunity from arrest, Dr. V. A. Lapenta, Italian consul in Indianapolis, was taken into custody today, for permitting a minor to drive an automobile within the city limits. A machine driven by the consul's fourteen year old son crashed into another car in front of police headquarters.

Dr. Lapenta declared he would appeal to his government if necessary to prevent any record of his arrest being made.

Unless New Development Comes Up, Clarence Darrow, Attorney Is Prepared To Close

IN LOEB-LEOPOLD TRIAL

Plans to Deal Only Few Minutes With Each Witness That Remains to be Examined

By EDWARD C. DERR

Criminal Court Room, Chicago, Aug. 8—The defense in the absorbing Leopold-Leob murder hearing expects to rest its case tomorrow, unless some unlooked for development occurs, Clarence Darrow, chief defense attorney, said today.

While more than a dozen lay witnesses including some members of the immediate families of Nathan Leopold and Richard Leob are on the defense list, Darrow said he hoped to dispense with most of them. He plans to spend but a few moments on each of the witnesses he puts on the stand. These witnesses are to put the finishing touches to them.

The "mitigation of punishment" structure Darrow has built with his alienists.

Present plans of the defense call for the calling of Dr. James W. Hall, chief of defense alienists to correlate the stories of the alienists and lay witnesses.

Yesterday Miss Lorraine Nathan, strikingly handsome 18-year-old daughter of the millionaire head of the Quaker Lace Company, took the stand and did her bit toward helping "Dickie," her one-time sweetheart.

Today, Germaine Reinhardt, equally pretty and youthful, but in more humble circumstances, is due to come to "Dickie's" defense. She, too, is a former sweetheart. Germaine is an artist's model and stenographer. Lorraine met Leob in 1921, while Germaine met the youth about two years later at a Bohemian gathering.

Both agree that "Dickie" had a lovable personality and agree he is not wholly responsible for his part in the murder of Robert Franks, 14-year-old school boy.

In "mitigation of punishment," Lorraine testified Leob acted in a most peculiar manner; that he was almost childish at times. She summed him up as "irrational." She did not change her testimony a bit when State's Attorney Crews intimated he might make a charge of perjury against her because of the totally different story she told in a statement made shortly after the arrest of the youths. She maintained her composure when Crews asked her point blank whether she "lied when you made the statement to us or whether you are lying now?"

Germaine's testimony is expected to be along the lines of Lorraine's story. Germaine may amplify it a bit as it is understood that Leob paraded imaginary deeds of bravery before her in an effort to impress her with his daring.

An Unlucky Fish Day For Five Anglers That Forgot Licenses

Waters Around Rushville Must Be Attractive to Outsiders, Says Justice Stech After Placing Fine on 5 Men, Nabbed by Game Wardens. Each Fisherman Gets $18.50 For Neglect. Seven Fined Since Sunday.

Flatrock river, in the vicinity of Rushville, has surely obtained a reputation as being one of the best bass fishing waters in the state.

This is the opinion expressed today by John P. Stech, local court justice, who handed out five fines to fishermen who came here to try their luck, and incidentally forgot about obtaining a license.

Two of the men, who were arrested by deputy state game wardens, were from Richmond, and the other three are transients who are here with a carnival company.

The Richmond men gave their names as W. J. Hubbard and C. O. Vickers. They were hauled into court by the game wardens, who happened to know one of the men as a resident of Richmond. Fine in such cases amount to $5.00 and costs, or $18.50 in all. They paid their fines and left for home.

The three carnival men, gave their names as Melvin Montgomery, Carl Dale and John J. Winters. They tried their luck along the river bank near

Assembly Will Be in Session There Next Week, Starting Wednesday, Ending Sunday

Harp Ensemble Company is Headliner With Several Noted Lecturers - Booked on Program

The annual Milroy Chautauqua will be held there beginning Wednesday August 13 under the direction of the Mutual-Morgan Lyceum Company of which Glen MacCaddam is the director.

The assembly will last for five days ending Sunday, during which a delightful program has been arranged including several noted musical organizations, a group of players and some well known lecturers.

On the first day, Wednesday, the afternoon will be spent in the organization of the Junior Town. In the evening the Croatian Tamburica Orchestra, a group of five accomplished musicians, will render a concert.

On Thursday Major Hanley will speak on "The Making of a Masterpiece" in the afternoon following a prelude by the Alice Shrode Company, a company of dramatists and singers. In the evening the same company will give a concert followed by Mr. Hanley in another lecture on "Anarchy, Its Cause and Cure."

Friday afternoon will be spent in listening to one of the best string orchestras on the road, the De Marco Symphonic Harp Ensemble which will give a concert. In the evening, which is community welfare night, this same group of musicians will give a prelude followed by Dr. J. Franklin Babb with his lecture on "The One Hundred Percent Man."

Probably one of the best days of the program will be the fourth, Saturday, which has rightfully been called "Dramatic Day." In the afternoon

Third Party Candidate Today Issues Statement, After Having Delayed The Matter

IS "UNALTERABLY" AGAINST

Candidate Declares that the Klan Has Within its Own Body the Seeds of its Death

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Aug. 8—Robert M. LaFollette met the Ku Klux Klan issue today with an open denunciation of the order by name.

"I am unalterably opposed to the evident purposes of the secret organization known as the Ku Klux Klan as disclosed by its public acts," the independent presidential candidate declared.

"It cannot long survive.

"Relying upon the sound judgment and good sense of the people, it is my opinion that such a movement is foredoomed. It has within its own body the seeds of its death."

LaFollette's first official statement of the issue was given in a letter to Robert P. Scripps, editorial of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, who wrote the senator suggesting that his position should be made known because of the national prominence—justly or unjustly—given

Jimmy Milane, Member of a Railroad Section Gang, Shot by Bert Smith, Blacksmith

WIFE INVOLVED IN TROUBLE

Greenfield, Ind., Aug. 8—Bert Smith, village blacksmith of New Palestine, is in jail here today, charged with shooting Jimmy Milane, member of an Italian section gang.

Milane was taken to a hospital in Indianapolis with a bullet wound in his shoulder.

Smith according to Hancock authorities, shot Milane because of attentions the laborer was said to have paid to Mrs. Smith.

Other members of the section gang threatened to lynch Smith after the shooting and he was hurried to the jail here.

MAY CHANGE THEIR COURSE

American Fliers are Blocked in the Frozen Iceland Country

Reykjavik, Aug. 8—Temporarily baffled, the American round-the-world flight expedition leaders, held a counsel of war abroad the scout cruiser Richmond today to plan their campaign with the frozen north. Lieut. Smith, Rear Admiral McRader and Commander Clarence Crumrine discussed what should be done about getting the flight underway once more. An attempt will be made to find a suitable landing place on the Greenland coast.

The airmen were anxious to get under way because it is not such a great while before the ice will set in earnest. Lieut. Smith studied reports of other Greenland Harbors which might be available for the flight even though they are somewhat farther from Reykjavik.

APPOINTMENT IS ROUTINE MATTER

Department of Justice Recommends Promotion for A. B. Anderson, Federal Court Judge

Declares That Judge Anderson Does Not Want "Vacation Appointment"—Has Local Angle

The change in the Federal Court Bench, promoting Judge A. B. Anderson to the Circuit Court of Appeals, will probably be a routine of business in the regular December session of Congress, Senator James E. Watson of this city stated in an interview given at Indianapolis yesterday, where he stopped off for a while between speaking engagements.

Senator Watson commented upon several other political matters during his brief stay in that city. The attention of the promotion of the federal court judge, was called to his attention, because of an announcement made yesterday that the department of Justice had recommended his appointment.

With the promotion of Judge Anderson, it will cause a vacancy on the bench in this state, and among the 30 some odd candidate for the place, is Will M. Sparks, judge of the local circuit court, who is believed to have a good chance of being considered.

The dispatch from Indianapolis, concerning the visit of the Indiana senator, is as follows:

Senator James E. Watson, while in Indianapolis yesterday for the first time since the Republican state convention in May, held several conferences with political associates at the Hotel Severin and took stock of the Hoosier situation.

The senator "dropped off" for a day in Indianapolis while en route to Terre Haute to fill a speaking engagement in York, Ill., this afternoon.

The only reference the senator made to the controversy over the removal of Bert Morgan as Federal prohibition director in Indiana was on expression of surprise that there would be any great amount of public interest in a job of this kind.

Senator Watson said that the action of the Department of Justice yesterday in formally recommending to the President the appointment of Judge A. B. Anderson to the bench of the Circuit Court of Appeals, is merely a routine matter. He said the department is charged with the investigation of persons recommended by the senators for these posts.

It is understood that Judge Anderson does not desire a "vacation appointment" and the change in the Federal bench probably will not take place until the next session of Congress in December.

Senator Watson would not discuss a possible successor to the Federal bench in Indiana when Judge Anderson is promoted. It is understood that Judge Robert Baltzell of Princeton, now on the Circuit bench in Gibson county, will be recommended.

Among the Republican leaders who conferred with the senator were Joseph B. Kealing, national committeeman from Indiana; M. Bert Thurman, collector of internal revenue; John Owen of Noblesville; Ora Davies, treasurer of state; Fiving Em-

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Board of Directors Held Session to Complete Final Details For Opening on Sunday

R. E. Mansfield, President, Issues Statement Concerning Prospects of the Annual Assembly

At a meeting of the officers and directors of the Rush county chautauqua, held Thursday evening, final arrangements were made for the opening of the seasons program at the Coliseum, in Memorial park on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Robert E. Mansfield, President of the Chautauqua, when asked today concerning the prospects for this year's meeting, August 10 to 17, inclusive, said: "The outlook is exceedingly promising for a successful season. The general financial situation has improved during the past year, especially with the farmers, and many Rush county citizens who have felt the necessity of practicing economy in the matter of expenditures for pleasure, and even educational entertainment, are viewing the prospect more hopefully and cheerfully and will, on this occasion, avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the chautauqua, and enjoying the splendid program provided.

"The advance sale of tickets has been very satisfactory, evidencing an interest in, and a desire on the part of the people to cooperate with the management in maintaining this institution, which has done much in the way of encouraging and maintaining community spirit in Rush county. In this connection I would call attention to the fact that those who have not already secured their tickets of the guarantors, which can now be obtained at $2.00 should do so at once. After the opening session the season tickets will be $2.50. Donald Ball, secretary of the association, will be at Hargrove & Brown's drug store on Saturday afternoon and evening where he can be seen by guarantors for settlement for tickets disposed of and will make arrangements for the sale of some unsold tickets. Season tickets can be secured at the above named store at any time, and also at Pitman & Wilson's drug store," Mr. Mansfield said.

"The program for this year, one of the best ever offered by the chautauqua, is well balanced, varied and interesting. It includes music of a high standard of excellence, entertainment features of exceptional merit, and educational numbers of unusual interest. WILL ORGANIZE FOR DEFENSE DAY PLANS

R. E. Mansfield of This City, Appointed Manager for Sixth District Territory

DEMONSTRATION SEPT. 12

Robert E. Mansfield of this city has been appointed manager for the Sixth district in the Defense Day demonstration to be held throughout Indiana on September 12, according to his appointment made by John Goodwin of Brookville, a member of the state committee.

Mr. Mansfield stated today that he had accepted the appointment, and would soon visit the other seven counties in the district and appoint county chairmen.

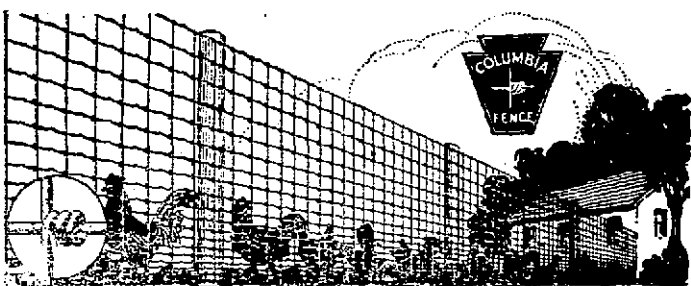

The program is to be carried out in an organized form, as sponsored by Governor Branch, who has endorsed the proposal in this state. Mr. Mansfield will attend a meeting Tuesday in Indianapolis of the district managers with the state committee, and plans will be formulated at this time.

The state committee appointed by Gov. Branch consists of five men. Mr. Goodwin of Brookville represents three congressional districts, the fourth, fifth and sixth, and in appointing Mr. Mansfield for this district he has started work on the organization of his territory.

$12 HOGS IN NOVEMBER?

It is being freely predicted that November hogs will sell for $11.50 to $12.00. At the rate they have advanced the past two weeks this seems to be a conservative estimate. Due to the scarcity of all classes of hogs and the probability of soft corn, feeders and all other sizes are in demand. Even at the present prices can you afford to take the risk of being cleaned out just as you are about to realize a profit? Beware of cholera. Prevent it. Do not wait until your hogs are sick. Our prices on serum are lower this year than ever before, and we guarantee to save you money. All of our serum and virus is government inspected.

ANACONDA

A Fox With Its Tail Cut Off

A Fox that had its tail cut off went around preaching to other Foxes that tails were very unfashionable. But the other Foxes only laughed at him.

The ANACONDA PLAN is based on the idea of bringing high-grade Fertilizers as close to the Users as possible, and cutting out all unnecessary freights and expenses. It will be extended as quickly as we can through the whole Middle West. Nothing can stop it, because it is an ECONOMIC plan. The wise fellows that use it will SAVE MONEY.

But every improvement brings forth a Jonah who says that it will not work. Jonah either wants to cut off its tail, or else tie his own tail onto it, for some purpose of his own. We suggest that Jonah be told to OFFER SOMETHING AS GOOD, if he tries to interfere. Anaconda Stocks of Superphosphate, Potash and Ammonia at over thirty points in Indiana.

Health and Vitality For Women

Health and Vitality can be yours without narcotics or drugs. Keeping well is largely a matter of keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to women as evidenced by headaches, backache and irritability. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such conditions and restoring sick and ailing women to health. It surely pays every suffering woman to try it.

the chautauqua," Mr. Mansfield pointed out.

"The musical numbers on the program presented this year have been arranged with a view to gratifying the wishes of a discriminating public in the matter of high class music. The entertainment features are of exceptional merit, and have been arranged to meet the demand of a large number of the patrons of chautauqua for this particular class of amusements."

"This year, as has been the general custom, the county teachers institute will be held in connection with the chautauqua, the morning session of which will be conducted in the assembly room of the court house, and the afternoon and evening programs presented by the institute, in the coliseum in Memorial Park. An unusual array of talent has been secured by the board of education for the institute work which, working in cooperation with the chautauqua enables the management to present an exceptionally strong and varied program."

BIBLE THOUGHT

—FOR TODAY—

Bible thoughts which will prove a precious heritage in later years.

Seek things above.—Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth.—Colossians 3:2.

Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.—Matthew 6:24

Prayer.—O Holy One, our hearts are fixed trusting in Thee.

Support the Chautauqua

Next week begins the twentieth annual session of the Rush County Chautauqua.

As an institution, the Chautauqua ranks next in importance to the home,
the school and the church.

It is the source of abundant entertainment, instruction and inspiration.

It is the only occasion in Rush
County during the year where friends
and neighbors may mingle for eight days in friendly and kindly social intercourse.

It offers to every holder of a session ticket great value for the insignificant cost to him.

Each individual has the benefit of an annual expenditure for talent and management costs of almost four thousand dollars for the small payment of two dollars.

Nowhere in the world can so much value be had for so little cost.

The business element of the city
can well afford to support the Chautauqua, because it annually brings to Rushville more people from outside territory, than any other event in the whole year.

This year the assembly will have an additional appeal by reason of its location in the greatly improved Memorial Park.

Much has been done during the present year to beautify and make the park more attractive.

All in all, there are many reasons
why every progressive citizen of Rush County should support the Chautauqua.

Give it your most loyal and enthusiastic indorsement.

THOUGHT OCEAN TRIPWOULD RESTORE HEALTH

"It was Tanlac that got me back on health's highway and the going is so good that it gives me real pleasure to praise Tanlac." This statement was made recently by Ralph Redden, proprietor of the Radio Garter &
Suspenders Co., 236 19th St., East Moline, Ill.

"This spring I felt so run-down
that I was planning an ocean trip with the hope of bringing back my lost energy. But luckily I avoided
this heavy expense and loss of time
by taking Tanlac. This medicine accomplished the very thing I was seeking and supplied me with a 100 percent good health.

"Before taking Tanlac meal time had little attraction for me and I was troubled with stomach disorders.
But when the calls to meals comes now I am eager to go, for I have an unfailing appetite and perfect digestion. In fact, Tanlac has put me in top-notch fettle and I think it great."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 millions bottles sold.

College Radicalism

The average small community never worries about radicalism. The Reds are regarded as a foreign substance.

But the average small community
does not take into consideration that the young people whom it is sending out into the world to the colleges
through the country may be confronted with radicalism in its worse form.

It has been proved that the Reds
of Europe, backing the Reds of America, are seeking in many ways
to develop socialism and communism
in this country.

They realize that if they can implant their teachings in the minds of immature young people, they will be enabled to obtain results that it would take many years longer to accomplish.

When parents get ready to select a higher educational institution for their children, they would do well to make sure that the agents of radicalism have not worked their way into the college or university of their selection with the intention of boring
from the inside.

finding important government business calling them elsewhere. Diplomats, being a less diplomatic, frankly pack their portfolios and portmanteaux and seek cooler spots.

But for many thousands of government workers, no such opportunity to dodge the sizzling dog-days
can be found.

To offset this situation for the stay-at-homes, the workers who must carry on the government's business while the bosses are away, Uncle Sam has provided what is probably the most extensive and varied recreational lay-out to be found in any city, anywhere.

INSIDE the 73 square miles of the District of Columbia there are no less than 505 "government reservations," ranging from small grass plots of a few hundred square feet to Potomac and Rock Creek parks, the latter containing 1700 acres.

And on all the larger of these reservations, play spaces have been set aside and facilities provided for almost any kind of outdoor sport
that can be imagined.

Swimming, golfing, boating, baseball, tennis, football and basketball are of course provided. These are the standard brands of recreation
provided in most public play places.

But in addition to these, Washington also offers its tired workers
a cricket field, two polo fields, a crosse field, a hurling ball field, an archery court, volley ball courts,

hockey fields, soccer fields, quoit courts and a general athletic field.

FOR golf alone there are no less than four courses, two of nine holes and two of 18.

There are 52 public tennis courts
and 17 baseball diamonds.
And in addition to the public
bathing beach in the tidal basin,
there is, near the Washington monument, a juvenile swimming pool.

According to the records, golf is the most popular sport in the capital, 277,777 players having checked
in on the public links last year.
Swimming comes second, with 175-
130, and tennis third with 95,000.

Croquet—we almost forgot the croquet courts—provided the thrills
for 5923 of the less strenuously inclined.

THE next extension of the public play program of the capital
may be the inauguration of public riding stables, to provide mounts for folks who would like to ramble on horseback along the District's bridle paths.

There are already more than 50 miles of these bridle paths, but to date they have been "exclusive."
Only folks who own their own mounts, or who can afford the high charges assessed by private riding academies, have been able to enjoy them.

Col. C. O. Sherrill, in charge of public grounds, now recommends that cavalry horses, superannuated from active service, be utilized to stock a stable near one of the parks, from which they can be rented at a nominal sum to the public.

If that is done, the last "exclusive" recreation of the capital will have been made common property.

But Uncle Sam believes good players make good workers, and no part of his public expenditure is figured as returning better dividends than those dollars put into providing public recreation.

Feathers have a particular affinity for dust particles. Dust and soil quickly penetrate the thick ticking and lodge in-them. Thorough washing is necessary.

We have a special way of washing pil-

by tossing them gently in a soft breeze of warm, fresh air, until every feather is sweetly clean, dry and fluffy. The bet-

Plans for Air Mail Route From Chicago to New Orleans Are Being Formulated

WOULD PASS NEAR HERE

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 7.—Concerted effort is under way today to establish an air mail route from Chicago to New Orleans, by Evansville and eight other cities along the route.

The postoffice department here has agreed to cooperate with the city and the chamber of commerce to establish the route and have it pass through this city.

Nashville, Tenn., is already in the fight to get the route. Recently Nashville business men hired a plane to make the trip and found that it beat
the mail train by five hours.

The route would connect up with the New York-San Francisco air mail which is now in operation. It has been proposed that the route be laid through St. Louis, but it was found that the route being sought by these eight cities is shorter. Included in the cities are Terre Haute, Ind., Birmingham, and Montgomery, Ala.; Nashville Tenn., and Evansville.

To be under weight often proves lost fighting-power in the body.
It often means you are minus nerve-

HONEY

We have on hand a large quantity of high grade
comb and extracted clover honey.

Extracted honey should not be confused with strained honey, for extracted honey is far superior.
Extracted honey is produced without breaking the combs. With a hot knife the cappings are cut from the combs, which are then placed in wire baskets inside the extractor. These baskets revolve so fast that all the honey is thrown out of the cells. The honey is then drawn in cans and the combs returned to the hives to be filled again by the bees.

All our comb honey is produced in section boxes.
We are sure you will be pleased with either our comb
or-extracted honey.

Champion Athletes Who Made Such Impressive Showing at Paris Scatter to all Parts of U. S.

ARRIVED HOME YESTERDAY

Officials Expressed Opinion That Games Were in no Danger as Result of Outbreaks in Paris

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Aug. 8.—America's Olympic team, which made such an impressive showing at the recent Paris games, had disbanded today and the champion athletes had scattered to all parts of the country.

Arriving yesterday on the liner America, the athletes were given a reception by the city and were then officially discharged by Colonel Robert M. Thompson, president of the American Olympic committee.

"Keep in shape, boys, work hard and we'll all be together again in 1928," Col. Thompson said when he was taking leave of the athletes.

Officials of the team and the athletes expressed the opinion that the Olympic games were in no danger as a result of some of the outbreaks in Paris. They said the games were too big to be hurt by a little poor sportsmanship and they felt sure that Amsterdam would have just as many teams and just as many athletes as were entered at Paris.

American officials were assured before leaving Paris that Amsterdam would be able to organize and conduct the 1928 games. The Amsterdam committee has not raised any funds, but the Holland officials gave assurance that they would be able to get the necessary money.

The international committee intimated that the Amsterdam committee would have to submit evidence in two years that the games would be properly organized and conducted, or Los Angeles would be nominated. California officials, however, objected to the possibility of being named as a late pinch hitter, claiming that it would take them four years to perfect their own organization.

Most of the American athletes will jump right back into training for the national championships. The majority of them are college students and many of them are star football players who will get right back into the grind of training.

The national championship this year have great possibilities this year and it is likely that a number of new records will be made as the athletes are all in good condition and they have profited by the work in Paris.

LAFOLLETTE IS OPPOSED TO KLAN

the question.

Heretofore Lafollette has shunned all Klan queries into the background because he believed—and still believes as he says in his letter to Sippis—that the "all-embracing" issue of this campaign "is to break the combined power of the private monopoly system over the political life of the American people."

Lafollette expressed regret that "questions involving religious opinion" had been raised. Even after the Republican convention wrote its religious freedom plank and the Democratic convention staged its bitter floor fight over the Klan plank, Lafollette presented his convention with a platform that took no recognition of the Klan issue or religion. He stressed economic ills and remedies.

At this, his first open statement on the issue, Lafollette quotes Abraham Lincoln and Thomas Jefferson to support his stand. He recalls a letter written by Lincoln in 1855 in which the Civil war president declares that certain forces at that time were apparently attempting to change the Constitution so that it reads: "All men are created equal except negroes and foreigners and Catholics."

Jefferson, the man who wrote the nation's Constitution is quoted by Lafollette as saying in 1803 that "I never will by word or act bow to the shrine of intolerance, or admit a right of inquiry into the religious opinions of others."

REFEREE BEST JUDGE OF FOUL

By FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Aug. 8.—Deciding the question of a foul in the prize ring is always a precarious business.

Boxers, from time immemorial, and one of the latest of these is Georges Carpentier, have shown adeptness in taking advantage of technicalities involved in the Marquis of Queensbury rules.

As it stands at present, the referee is the sole judge. If a boxer makes a claim of foul, or the referee observes a foul blow, he must award the fight to the aggrieved party.

Often, the third man in the ring is not in a position to judge exactly where a blow landed. This was the case when Tunney stopped Carpentier. Andy Griffin, ordinarily the coolest and most able of referees, had to decide whether the Frenchman had been struck low. He decided to the contrary, stuck to his guns and the outcome was as satisfactory as possible under the turbulent circumstances with which Carpentier and his crafty manager, Francois Deschamps, sometimes manage to surround a defeat.

It is argued by some that the judges should be polled in an instance like this, since they are so distributed about the ring that one might conceivably have been in a better position to judge the blow in question than was the referee.

But think what this would mean. A tired fighter, struck in the stomach, would yell, "Foul". The referee would have to stop the fight and consult the judges. Meanwhile, seated on the floor, the tired fighter would have recovered his breath and could go on with the fight. Moreover, he would be able to continue to cry "Foul" on similar occasions, ad lib.

Mistakes happen under the present system—and one MAY have been made when Carpentier lost to Tunney—but it is a better system than the proposed substitute.

Referees are generally old-timers. They know the game and the men, and not much is "put over" on them. They are keen of eye, quick of decision and have the confidence of absolute authority which would be lacking if their decisions were disputable. It would be as though appeal were permitted from the decisions of an umpire at a baseball game on balls and strikes.

A fighter is entitled to all he can get—within the rules. A good idea is to have as few rules as possible.

It would be no new thing to have a good referee make a mistake in an important fight. Sometimes it seems as though the more important the fight the bigger the mistake.

Certainly, during the never-to-be-forgotten Dempsey-Firpo go there were fouls galore. But that affair had developed into a man-to-man survival of the fittest sort of a scrap, and the referee would have been criticized if he had observed the strict letter of ring law and awarded the fight to Firpo.

Once, when Jimmy Wilde was losing his title to Pancho Villa, the little Filipino started a punch with the bell, and it knocked the Englishman kicking. It was technically a foul, because the blow landed after the bell had rung, but it wasn't claimed.

When Dempsey won the heavyweight crown from Willard at Toledo, he was permitted by his seconds to leave the ring, at the end of the first round, under the impression that he had knocked out the giant, who lay stunned on the canvas. But the timekeeper decided the bell had saved Jess, and there was a hurry call to get Dempsey back into the ring before Willard's seconds should claim the fight for their man on the ground that Dempsey had disqualified himself by quitting the ring.

By the way, Andy Griffin, who refereed the recent much-disputed Tunney-Carpentier fight, says he did not try to stop the fight in the tenth round, as we all imagined. Griffin says that after the official physician had indicated by a sign that Carpentier appeared in a bad way, he asked the Frenchman if he wanted to quit. It was then that Georges spat out his indignant "No" through bleeding lips.

The Yankees are beginning to root for Ruth to put on a little spurt and better his home-run record of 1921.

Mrs. Gerald Wheland entertained at her home 359 Burgess Avenue, Indianapolis, Tuesday with a Breakfast bridge, honoring Miss Dorothy Sparks, a bride-elect. Covers were laid for fourteen.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church was held Thursday afternoon in the back yard of the church parsonage in North Main street. Mrs. Albert Allen had charge of the bible study and Mrs. Joe Amos gave a very interesting review of "The Life on the Congo." Mrs. L. E. Brown gave a short talk on the convention she attended at Bethany Park last week, which was very interesting and instructive. The program closed with a clever reading by Mrs. Curt Hester. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the program by the August division.

Miss Lois Reeves entertained with a luncheon-bridge Thursday afternoon at her home in North Main street, honoring Miss Dorothy Sparks who will be married to Horace Foster of Pittsburgh, Pa., August 16. The luncheon was served at one o'clock and during the serving of the salad course, the hostess carried out a complete surprise to her friends. Concealed between the wafers, served with the salad course, was the announcement of her engagement to Henry Robert Woodward, of Peoria Ill., the wedding to take place in October. Mr. Woodward attended Wisconsin University and is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Miss Reeves is a graduate of DePaul University and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Following the serving of the luncheon the remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing bridge.

Miss Raeburn Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lowe, living south west of the city, and Marion Stanley of Knightstown, were united in marriage Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Main Street Christian church parsonage by the Rev. L. E. Brown. They were attended by a few of their friends from Knightstown and this city.

The bride was a graduate of the Webb high school this spring and Mr. Stanley, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Stanley, graduated from the Knightstown school in 1921 and since then has been a student at Purdue University. Those who witnessed the ceremony were the Misses Lolita Stiers, Grace Banta, and Marian Lucas of this city, and Robert Cooper of Knightstown and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sparks and son Ben Jr.

Miss Marie Whelan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Erwin Whelan, of all; Devotional, O. P. Wamsley; piano solo, Robert Harris; violin solo, Max Engle; piano solo, Thelma Jackson; class song, Dunning class; reading, Lavienna Compton; trio, Violin, piano, bells, Engle family; vocal solo, Charlotte Norris; roll call; music, Max and Eugene Engle.

After the program a bountiful pitch-in dinner was served in the coliseum to one hundred pupils. Miss Viola Jay acted as toastmaster and clever toasts were given by O. P. Wamsley, "Music"; Mrs. Burt Matney, "Treble Clef Club"; Mrs. Belle Ball, "Our Teacher"; Mrs. Backous, "Reminiscence". At this time the first musical organization of this kind ever formed in Rush county was made with the following officers: President, O. P. Wamsley, Rushville; vice president, Mrs. G. D. Nichols, Springfield, Ohio; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Rushville. Much credit for this organization is given to Mrs. Meredith, who is one of the foremost music teachers of this section of the state. She conducts a private music school in this city for both beginners and advanced pupils. Of the four hundred and fifty names on the roll, ninety-eight answered and there were thirty-four remembered, who were deceased.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. F. E. Engle, Eugene and Max Engle, Mrs. E. D. Colfield, Indianapolis; Mrs. Keith Alter, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mrs. Jeffray, Connersville; Mrs. Backous, Dalton Backous, Robert Handy, Misses Roberta Hayes, Marjorie Keaton, Helen Wilson of Morristown; Mrs. G. D. Nichols, Springfield, Ohio, Miss Thelma Jackson, Bentonville; Mrs. Paul Norris and Mrs. Belle Ball of Carthage.

The Misses Verl Daubenspeck and Beatrice and Lucile Haselby were dinner guests of the Misses Edna and Zelma Dolan Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. J. Perkins, Mrs. Carl Perkins, Mrs. Dallas Hardwick, and son Wallace Keith, of New Salem and Mrs. Omer Perkins of Lebanon and Mrs. John Gibson of this city enjoyed a picnic Wednesday at Webb's ford.

Heavy rains, accompanied by severe lightning and strong winds caused extensive losses to crops and property.

Strong Wind Is Reported

Madison, Wis., Aug. 8—Wind and rain ravaged southern central Wisconsin suffered another devastating blow early today as wind, rain and lightning swept havoc across the south end of the state.

The wind, of cyclonic force, toy-wind, followed by heavy downpours with trees and barns. Lightning cracked in the wake of the strong while swelled down stream for the third time in a week.

Telephone and telegraph wires suffered most. The winds were believed to be dying gusts of tornadoes sweeping in from Iowa, where heavy damage was done during the night.

noon a sketch will be given by the Elias Day Players followed by an entertainment by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Hammond, who offer a unique program. "Six Cylinder Love" will be presented by the Elias Day Players in the evening.

For the final day on Sunday the De Willo Concert Company, a group of musicians and singers will be on the platform. They will give the prelude in the afternoon followed by an entertainment by Emily Waterman, a reader. In the night, which is called Joy Night, a Lawn Fete will be given by the Junior Chautauqua, a concert by the De Willo Company and the assembly will be closed by another entertainment by Emily Waterman.

An Unlucky Fish Day For Five Anglers That Forgot Licenses

the carnival grounds. Game wardens spied them, asked them where they lived, and then asked them for their licenses.

In this case the carnival men were hard pressed to pay their fines, and were making an effort today to obtain the money, rather than spend 19 days in jail.

The law reads that all residents of a county may fish within the county without a license. If you live in some other county, a license is necessary. The law contradicts itself regarding fishing in adjoining counties without a license, and it is best to have a dollar license, if the fish bite better in an adjoining county.

The five arrests this morning brought the total to seven, as a Terre Haute man and a Newcaste man were fined Sunday following their arrest by the game wardens.

"Ride For Your Life"

After playing a southern mountaineer for several weeks in "The Night Message," the Peery Poore Sheehan production filmed at Universal City, Howard Truesdell's changed his characterization to that of a western pioneer in Hoot Gibson's new starring feature, "Ride For Your Life," which will be shown at the Mystic theatre today.

This is Truesdell's second appearance in a Gibson film within the last few months. His characterization of the irascible dad of the heroine in "Out of Luck" was considered an outstanding piece of acting.

Gibson's new picture is a story of the early days in California when gold mining was the sounding note of adventure. It is an adaption by Raymond L. Schrock of a magazine story by Johnston McCulley.

The theme of the story is woven around an easy-dispositioned young cowboy who is rebuked by a pretty girl who tells him that she'd rather have a hand for a husband than a lad of his temperament. The youth play hand in response to the girl's whim.

Laura La Plante, recently made a star by Universal, plays the romantic leading role. Edward Sedgwick, director of the "Ramblin' Kid," and other big Gibson productions, handled the megaphone.

"Thru The Flames"

A cast of unusual distinction was selected to present Thru The Flames, the greatest fire picture, ever produced.

Woman Thinks She Can't Talk Enough

"I had gall stones for 14 years and suffered severely from gas, colic and indigestion. Doctors wanted me to go to the hospital, but I took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy instead, and am now feeling fine and better than I ever did. I can't talk enough about this remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

duced, at the Castle theatre today and Saturday.

The star, Richard Talmadge, needs no introduction to the screen, proclaimed by the press and exhibitors everywhere, a second edition of Douglas Fairbanks, and the surest box-office bet of all time. Smiling, daring, carefree, reckless, with a winning personality that endears himself to all motion picture loving fans in Thru The Flames, his latest thrilling, smashing production, he will establish himself for all times as the greatest thrill artist on the screen.

Charlotte Pierce, as Dan Merrill's sweetheart, once more repeats her usual successful performance as in "The Barnstormer," "The Courtship of Miles Standish," "Gas, Oil and Water," etc. Edith Yorke has established herself as the most popular portrayer of mother parts on the screen.

Fred Kohler as the neighborhood "bully" and leader of the gang of thieves is brutally convincing—the type of "heavy" you wait for in hopeful anticipation to get his just desserts.

Big Show at Indianapolis

A rumor heard sometime since is now confirmed by the official announcement that the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows will positively exhibit at Indianapolis, Aug. 26.

That this biggest of all amusement institutions is to come within easy distance is of unusual interest to local people because of the many changes that have taken place in this mammoth circus since it last visited this locality.

The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey super-assembly of men and women of eight hundred of the world's men stars has now reached a total premier riders, aerialists, gymnasts and athletic champions. There are a hundred of the funniest clowns on earth. The total personnel of this amazing circus exceeds sixteen hundred persons. More than fifty trainers and keepers are also required for the splendid troupe of jungle animals that are exhibited in four steel arenas as part of the gigantic program. The pachyderm lineup numbers forty-three elephants; for the main-tent stages as well as the three rings are now occupied by elephant troupes. This is the first time in circus history that five herds of elephants have been presented in a single display. The trained horse numbers have been augmented by the importation of new companies of supposedly untractable Russian stallions. Thus the various displays—sixteen in all—are equally distributed throughout the entire length of the mammoth main-tent. Some idea of the increased size of this great circus may be had from the estimate made by a New York statistician when it was playing at Madison Square Garden. After taking a census of the Big Show's people, horses, trained animals and the thousand animals contained in its menagerie, he announced that were

State of Indiana, Rush County, ss: Rush Circuit Court. In Vacation.

In the Matter of the Petition of Lee Roy Divilbiss to Repair and Change Course of Drain.

To Lola B. Hudelson, Stella M. Hudelson, Lula Dalrymple, Hettie J. Roberts and Carrie L. Atkins: Each of you are hereby notified that I have filed in the office of the Clerk of the Rush Circuit Court my petition for the repair, change of course and size of the Lee Roy Divilbiss et al. drain; that said drains are described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the Samuel H. Trabue et al. drain about 190 rods south of the north end of said drain and on the lands of Frank Hudelson in the north half of the north half of the northwest quarter of Section 16, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, thence northeasterly through Section 16 across the highway, thence northeasterly about 40 rods to a point in the southwest quarter of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, thence northeasterly across said southwest quarter, thence in a northerly direction along said Lee Roy Divilbiss et al. drain across the northwest quarter of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East to a point where said drain ends on the lands of Omer Abernathy about 25 rods south of the north line of said northwest quarter. Said drain as described affecting the north portion of the Samuel H. Trabue et al. drain, and the remainder being the main line of the Lee Roy Divilbiss et al. drain; also, the lateral drain of the Lee Roy Divilbiss drain beginning at a point on the main line of said Lee Roy Divilbiss drain about 90 rods north of the south line of the southwest quarter of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, and thence in a northeasterly direction to the south line of the northwest quarter of Section 9 in said township and range, thence in a meandering north and northeasterly direction through said northwest quarter to a point on the lands of Lee Roy Divilbiss, near the west line of Section 9, Township 15 North, Range 10 East, where the said lateral drain ends.

Said petition will be docketed on the fourth judicial day of the September Term, 1924, of the Rush Circuit Court, the same being September 4th, 1924.

TO LOCATE "WORKSHOP OF WORLD" IN STATE

TO BUILD NEW POWER PLANT

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—In Indiana as in other states around the Great Lakes will be located the "workshop of the world" in the next twenty-five years.

This was the prediction today in a survey by industrial engineers of the prospective growth of industry and population in this territory.

Here is what the report indicates for Indiana during the quarter of a century:

1. Increase in population of four and one-half millions.

2. That Indiana will be made the site for great "super-power" plants that will produce at least 3,000,000 horse-power.

3. That Indiana industries will be increased, including great increases in steel production in the Lake country district.

New power stations are being built by the Insull interests near Gary on Lake Michigan, and the Brewer interests have opened a station on the Wabash River at Terre Haute and other superpower stations are being built and contemplated.

According to the report the following increases will be made in the Hoosier urban populations during the period:

Indianapolis, from 350,000 to more than 500,000; Terre Haute from 66,000 to 100,000; Frankfort from 12,000 to 18,000; and Clinton from 11,000 to 16,500.

Columbus—Lafayette Lane, 80 and toothless, was uninjured when he fell out of a second story window during a dream in which he thought a dentist was pulling his teeth.

Gary—A few hours after three boys were released with a lecture for stealing 150 golf balls, they were arrested by police again for stealing 150 more.

AUGUST 10th to 17th

The most cherished community enterprise, the Rush County Chautauqua, presents its twentieth annual program, confident of its merit and your approval.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 10th 2:00 P. M.—Prelude by the Chicago Sextette. This company has been selected from among the best orchestral players of Chicago. Every member is master of his instrument. Lecture—Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon. Rev. Wedderspoon is pastor of the St. James Methodist Episcopal Church of Chicago, and is noted as one of the most eloquent and gifted divines of great pulpit orators.

SUNDAY EVENING, AUGUST 10th, 7:00 P. M.—Prelude by the Chicago Sextette. Lecture—Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 11th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. Those who have heard Mrs. Stubbs say that her child work activities will be a leading feature of the week's program. Prelude—Howard Russell Revue. Mr. Russell is well known and is regarded as a leading baritone, an artist of great merit. He sings humorous numbers just as well as his ballads and dramatic numbers. 3:00 P. M.—Lecture—Dr. Leon H. Vincent. Those who heard Dr. Vincent last year know that his lecture this year will be among the best and will be one of the big drawing cards.

MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 11th, 7:30 P. M.—Howard Russell Revue. 8:30 P. M.—Lecture—L. A. Convis. Lewis A Convis is a very interesting speaker on Russia and Siberia. He will tell you of these countries, their people and their problems with special regard to conditions in which America is interested.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 12th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. Prelude—Howard Russell Revue. 3:00 P. M.—Play "Her Husband's Wife." This company consists of six persons and carries sufficient scenery to present the play most attractively.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 12th, 7:30 P. M.—Play, "Six Cylinder Love." It is good, clean, wholesome fun all the way through with a clear cut message which you cannot dodge.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 13th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Mrs. Martha J. Stubbs. Prelude—The Wells Company. An exceptionally distinctive and versatile entertaining organization. This company is one of the best two-person companies on the Chautauqua platform today. They feature the presentation of a complete play as a part of their offerings. 3:00 P. M.—Play, "The Atonement" by The Wells Company.

Season Tickets can be had from guarantors at $2.00 each. It is well worth your time and small amount of money.

After reading the above program you have no doubt come to the conclusion that Telephone some guarantor and have your tickets reserved.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 13th, 7:30 P. M.—Prelude, The Wells Company. 8:30 P. M., "The Children's Circus." This is a feature which every child in the community will desire to see and hear. It will delight all children, whether their age be six or sixty. Altogether it is the most complete novelty act which has been placed on the Chautauqua programs for years.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 14th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. 2:30 P. M., Operetta by The Montague Company. This company has gained great popularity every where through their renditions of light opera selections, with special costuming and stage settings. Each one of the four artists comprising the company has a splendid reputation.

THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 14th, 7:30 P. M.—Prelude, The Montague Company. 8:30 P. M., Lecture, Gov. Charles H. Brough. His great lecture "America's Leadership of the World" is a rare combination of patriotic inspiration and educational value, seasoned with anecdotes and witticisms. He is a well known educator and writer on national problems.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 15th, 2:15 P. M.—Children's Hour, Martha J. Stubbs. 2:30 P. M., Concert by Williams' Jubilee Singers. The members of this company have been trained in some of America's best schools, and should be able to entertain you.

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 15th, 7:30 P. M.—Prelude by Williams Jubilee Singers. 8:30 P. M., Lecture by Dr. M. S. Rice. Dr. Rice will deliver his famous lecture, "Junk." With striking personality and forceful delivery this lecture ranks second to no other production in America today.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 16th, 2:30 P. M.—Lecture—"The Instincts of Childhood" by Martha J. Stubbs.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 17th, 2:15 P. M.—Opening Exercises. 2:30 P. M., Concert by Adanac Quartet. This male quartet is one of the leading musical organizations of Canada. They specialize in the best music literature and their renditions will delight not only the most exacting critic but afford honest pleasure to all who enjoy good music.

SUNDAY EVENING, AUGUST 17th, 7:00 P. M.—Prelude by Adanac Quartet. 8:00 P. M., Lecture by Prof. Ernest Ray Moulton. He is professor in the University of Chicago and is an internationally known authority on astronomy. His subject is "The Origin, Development and Destruction of Worlds."
